

Life in America's Navy Reserve

Navy Reserve Healthcare Team

As a member of America's Navy Reserve Healthcare Team you can take yourself to new heights. Whether you are already experienced, or just beginning your healthcare career, the Navy Reserve can help you achieve the level of success you desire.

Serving in the Navy Reserve is a chance to have it all. You'll receive the same training and opportunities as your active duty counterparts. You'll meet the same high standards and qualifications as well. You'll be a totally integrated member of the U.S. Navy and as such, you'll provide the vital skills necessary to maintain national security and to support our nation's interests worldwide by providing the best possible health care to Sailors, Marines and their families.

As a Navy Reservist you'll not only be serving your country, you'll be enhancing your own civilian career. The Navy will work with you so you can be flexible in scheduling your Reserve time. It really is the best of both worlds. You serve your country—you stay true to yourself.

Whether you find yourself learning new techniques to combat bio-warfare casualties, going ashore with the Marine Corps, or undergoing medical training unrivaled in the civilian world, you can play a key role in taking care of the people who take care of our country.

America's Navy Reserve Hospital Corpsmen not only assist physicians and Dentists but rise to the challenge of rendering emergency medical care in a variety of settings ranging from state-of-the-art medical facilities, to duty with the Marine Corps, to disaster relief.

For more information about opportunities in America's Navy Reserve, please call 1-800-USA-USNR or visit us online at navyreserve.com

To learn more about full-time opportunities in America's Navy, please call 1-800-USA-NAVY or visit us online at navy.com

Do More!

Hospital Corpsman

AMERICA'S
NAVY
RESERVE

018-0614 (REV 09/10)

Benefits

When you serve your country, you become a part of something truly important – and you deserve to be rewarded accordingly. Navy Reservists enjoy a comprehensive range of benefits, from state-of-the-art training to extensive educational assistance, VA benefits and more.

Additionally, as a Navy Reservist you will continue earning points toward your retirement every time you drill. You can preserve the points you earned while on active duty, and continue taking steps toward military retirement benefits. How many part-time jobs do you know of that offer retirement benefits?

In return for your service and dedication, America's Navy Reserve provides you with benefits designed to help you succeed in both your military and civilian lives:

- Receive 4 days of basic pay for only 2 days worked (16 hours) each drill weekend
- Opportunities to acquire new skills and sharpen existing ones, enhancing your civilian career
- Educational assistance
- Tax-free, worldwide Navy Exchange and commissary privileges for you and your family
- VA guaranteed home loans in excess of $400,000
- Low-cost insurance options, including up to $400,000 in life insurance
- Travel opportunities
- Earn points toward retirement benefits every time you drill
- Retirement after 20 qualifying years
- TRICARE Reserve Select Health Care Plans

If you join the Navy Reserve medical community, responsibilities might include:

- Helping prevent and treat diseases and injuries
- Rendering emergency medical treatment
- Administering medications, including injections
- Transporting the sick and injured
- Taking and processing X-rays and operating X-ray equipment
- Serving as an operating room technician for general and specialized surgery
- Operating sophisticated medical diagnostic treatment equipment
- Specializing in a number of fields, including radiology, search and rescue, and optical and preventive medicine
- Assisting in providing dental care to Navy personnel and their families
- Assisting in oral surgery
- Constructing dental crowns and bridges
- Administering medications and injections

AMERICA'S
NAVY
RESERVE

The Navy Reserve can completely redefine your expectations – for your career, and your life.